Queen Mother H. Beatrice Duffey

HER LIFE & HER LEGACY

Hattie Beatrice Duffey was born on July 19, 1927 In Carlisle, Arkansas to Elgin Curtis Dodson and Hattie Ola Mae (nee' Brown). She was born into a family of proud people who descended from the coast of Cameroon West Africa as bondsmen, Native Americans, and Englishmen.

In 1932, after being persuaded by one Brother Bryant, Elgin and Ola Mae gave their lives to the Lord and joined the Church of God in Christ. They soon moved to Stuttgart, Arkansas and worshipped at Holy Benton Temple under Elder CL Benton. He referred the family to the COGIC Faith Home Industrial and Literary Boarding School in nearby Geridge, Arkansas. H.

Beatrice enrolled there and her family soon moved to the community also known as "Jesus Ridge." The school had been founded under Bishop Justus Bowe and his wife Rizlee, who would become great friends with Ola Mae and Elgin. It is here that H. Beatrice would first encounter the founder of COGIC, Bishop C.H. Mason and other luminaries such as Mother Lizzie Robertson. She was under the tutelage of Mother Lillie L. Hightower, principal of the school. Here she witnessed the miracles and blessings of the Saints. She bore witness to the resurrection of a school mate who had fallen ill and had died.

In 1936, the family reveled west to California and lived in Blythe, historic African American Township of Allensworth, and Delano. She would go on to become the youth department secretary and chairlady of the Valley District Jurisdiction and began work with Minister Westley Daniel Duffey. She had been deemed the 'Prettiest Girl in the Valley' by many. The couple would wed in 1947 at Lilly of the Valley Church in Bakersfield, months before her graduation from Delano High School in 1947. In the 1960's she attended Diablo Valley College, majoring in business.

The couple settled in Bakersfield and began a family there. With three daughters and an infant son, they briefly pastored in Victorville, California. In 1952, they relocated to the San Francisco Bay Area. They moved to Pittsburg, California and worked under Bishop GW McGlothen at his satellite church there. H. Beatrice had also attended McGlothen Temple Church of Richmond as a youngster in the 1940's. She would become greatly influenced by Dr. Mattie McGlothen, then California Women's Department Chair of COGIC.

In 1955, Westley D. Duffey founded the Evangelist COGIC, where Beatrice served as first lady, musician, choir director, and mentor to women. She also bore four more children there.

She would later serve as District Missionary of Evangelist District where they joined forces with the Late Willie Mae Anderson, Dad and Mother Combs and their singing family.

Beatrice faithfully served the church and district and also worked as an Accountant at Chevron Oil Corp.

In the 1980's she worked faithfully as the Christian Women's Council President for California Northwest Jurisdiction, working with Mother Mattie McGlothen, International Supervisor of Women for the International Church. She greatly organized the women in this capacity and haled one of the largest auxiliaries in in the Jurisdiction.

H. Beatrice, after years of service to the church, was bestowed the Doctor of Ministry from Baylor University. She also served Evangelist Community Church as Queen Mother under her son, Supt. Westley D. Duffey, III.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of nearly 67 years, Supt. Westley D. Duffey; her parents, Elgin and H. Ola Mae Dodson, her daughter, Elizabeth Olinda Duffey, and her beloved brother, Walter Dodson.

Mother H. Beatrice Dodson-Duffey leaves to treasure her memory: four daughters, Dr. Pamela Diane Duffey-Mills, Malinda Patrice Duffey, Pastor Phyllis Maurice Duffey-Johnson (Bishop Clarence), and Dorcas Johnice Duffey. Three sons: Superintendent Westley Daniel Duffey, III (Missy Betty), Minister Steven Absalome Duffey and Phillip Jerome Duffey. Grandchildren: Shane C. Mills (Tamika), Tyaka NB Mills, Keilah A. Johnson, Clarence M. Johnson III (Tracy), Sterling J. Johnson (Kisha), Phyletia J. Drumgoole (Derrick), Artavi J. Duffey, Zophya Kellogg, Phylazhe J. Carter (Shad) Mercedes D. Stephens (Eric), Westley D. Duffey IV, Braxton A. Duffey, Min.

Benjamin A. Duffey, Clariece Ferguson, Jerome Johnson, carol Tochiko Mills, Robert E. Mills III, A Goddaughters, Valarie Blackmore-Anderson, Kathryn Burrell, and Janet Harvey and a host of Great Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, et al.

These are a few of her favorite things:

- Song.: pray your way through
- Colors: pink and silver
- Food: egg custard pie
- Close: just dressed up. With. Hat for church
- Scripture: I Thessalonians 4:13-18
- Her children

EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY

Dr. Emma J. Clark Foundation, Inc.

Mother H. Beatrice Duffey

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain." Revelation 21:4

We thank God, for the labors and the joys of Mother H. Beatrice Duffey, Mother of Ms. Dorcas Duffey, President of the Dr. Mattie McGlothen Library Museum Association. In this our beloved saint of God, we have lost a noble worker, a tireless leader of God's people and a great supporter and donor to the Dr. Mattie McGlothen Library Museum in Richmond, California.

We will remember her as a faithful loving mother, supporter of her local church, district and Jurisdiction, servant, teacher, musician, leader of his people and an anointed teacher of the gospel.

We are praying for you that the Lord Jesus will help you as you mourn, comfort you with the knowledge of His love which is stronger than death and enable you to trust Him for the future of your loved ones and yourself. God will help you to cast all your cares on Him, knowing that the grave holds no power over those who trust in Him. "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord" Job 1:21.

The members of the Dr. Emma J. Clark Foundation, Inc. and the Dr. Mattie McGlothen Library-Museum Association go on record as expressing our deepest sympathy to the family of Mother H. Beatrice Duffey and that a copy of these expressions of sympathy be given to the family and a copy kept in our records.

RESOLUTION

of California Northwest Jurisdiction
Church of God in Christ

District Missionary H. Beatrice Duffey

"She fought a good fight; she finished her course; she kept the faith...."

We thank God, for the labors and the joys of District Missionary H. Beatrice Duffey of Nor Cal Metropolitan Jurisdiction and former First Lady of Evangelist Church of God in Christ.

Whereas: We celebrate with you the life of Mother H. Beatrice Duffey who loved God and God's people. She was a Saved, Sanctified and Holy Ghost filled "Woman of God" who supported her Pastor and the church. She fought a good fight and through it all, she kept the faith.

For many years, she worked in love, wisdom, humility, with courage, patience, joy and self-denial in the California Northwest Jurisdiction Women's Department and was a dedicated and faithful President of the Christian Women's Council for many years. May her family live together in faith and love, and in that hope which is the forerunner of immortality.

Resolved: That we remember her as a great leader and servant who loved to praise God, prayer warrior, counselor, singer and great teacher of the gospel.

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That the members of California Northwest Jurisdiction Women's Department go on record as expressing our deepest sympathy to her family, the Nor Cal Metropolitan Jurisdiction, the Evangelist Church of God in Christ and that a copy of these resolutions be given to the family and a copy kept in our records.
